Dear Jean:

Here are some thoughts on my Smith line and I am awaiting some information that may shed some light on the subject. It is certain thru Elizabeth and an hypothesis based on documentation. of course, from there on.

The Lancaster line may seem strange, but it is a fact that James Franklin Lancaster and his sister Caroline were not the children of William Gordon Johnson. He was their step-father so the rest of W.C. Johnson's children are of no kin to us. Apparently James Franklin did use his step-father's name until he was grown and married, but he eventually did go by the name of Lancaster on his Confederaev War Record and, of course he gave the name to my G.Grandfather William Gordon Lancaster who married Sarah Dell Moody. I know who Caroline James Franklin's sister married, but I can't find the information right now. Mary Ann Ingram would know, and probably would know the names of the Johnson children's spouses, too.

T Forgot to mention in my last letter that one of mv limes is Hemphill. Mv G Grand-father Daniel Hisev Hemphill married Lillie George Etheridge (they are buried in Laurel). She was the daughter of C.W. Etheridge and Sarah Jane Compton. Daniel was the nephew of Brickley, Melvin and Samuel H. Hemphill (Mayor of Collins, Ms. in 1904). They were the brother of Robert T. Hemphill who stayed in Big Rapids, Mich. He married Alice Canaan and they were the parents of Daniel who may own father was named. The other brothers were businessmen in Hattiesburg. Daniel lived at Rawl Springs, Ms.(Forrest Co.) They are documented in Miss. Biograpy Vol.3.335-337 & 383 & 384.

Jean there are two books that might help you get the Smith line straight. One is "By Juckers" William "Juckers" Smith Family History Book which can be ordered from Rt. 3, Box 47, Picayune, Miss. 39466 for $15.00.

and then I will enclose a sheet from the Bat son Family Book that has some information on some Smiths. I will try to obtain some more information on Smiths. My feeling is to look at the Perry Co Census and other counties that made up Wayne Co. and group the Smiths by S.C. and N.C. and then break them down into "families"by who was living next to or close to whom. I think there is a market for a good Smith book for that area. I was able to take my Massey line in Bay Springs back to the Doomesday Books and William the Conquorer 1086 by using Judge Massey's Books Massey Addendum and Massey's on Census. Just to document the Smiths on Census would be a marvelous book. He covered all the Southeast U.S., but just a few states would be a good start.

I believe the Smiths tended to be kind of clanish just like the Massey's and the Thigpen's because there is a whole countie named Smith here in Texas so even if they weren't related by blood they liked to be near others of the same name. I am sure after reading the Massey Books that our Smiths are going to narrow down to a few lines way back. Perhaps five or six lines just like they did. (Masseys)

Thank you for the timetable and county formation map.
Rachael and Thomas Creel and Elizabeth Smith are born in S.C. on the census and Allen is born in Ga. or Al. depending on which census you look at. They are related because my Mary and Mr. Walley's Martha are living with Eliz. on the census and Allen is their father and Eliz, lives with Thomas Creel and Rachael. This is all I am sure of on this family except that there is an Eliz. Smith and William Smith in your deed book in Luced. Co. and then it is not too far down to Jones where they Allen and a William were and then the road goes straight down to Perry Co. and Copiah Co.(Eliza possibly in will) is not too much out of the way. I don't know Jean your guess is as good as mine. I just wish I could get mine straight.

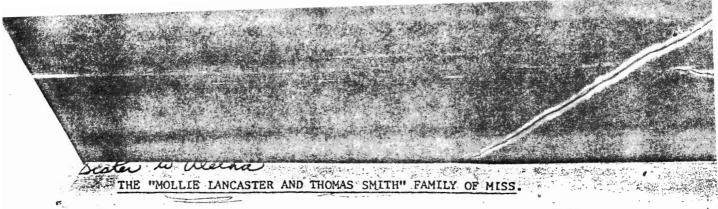

I will be writing soon when I get some material for you.

Sincerely,

Mary Ann Downs Mohr

Mary ann mohr

P. S. Let Mary ann Ingram to gut everything the knows Concerning who married whom "in to miss on a tape for you. It's too much to write and not alot on any one jamily, but the knows guite alot in general.

Details of family of Lula Welsh Brown, daughter of Jane Smith and Dr. William A. Smith. (Jane Smith was daughter of Edward McCarty II).

Lula Welsh Brown, b. 1857, m. Samuel (Sam) N. Welsh first, and then
d. 1927. after his death m. Mr. Brown, father of husband of her daughter, Lela.

Samuel (Sam) N. Welsh, b. ??, m. Lula Smith, above, d. 20 Feb 1902.

Lela, b. 1/ Apr 1884 m. O. L. Brown, 4. 4 Jan 1903.

William (Willie) b.26 Aug 1880, Never married, d. 2 May 1924.

(Details taken from tombstones in cemetery at Ellisville, Mississippi).

Lula Smith first married Samuel (Sam) N. Welsh. They had two children, Lela, the first child, and then William (Willie). The Welsh family moved from Clarke County, Mississippi, to Jones County, and Ellisville, about 1900 or 1901. Lela married O. L. Brown, of Ellisville, and had one child by him, Welsh Brown. She died at Ellisville a short time after birth of this child. Mrs. Lula Welsh, grandmother of this baby, took the child to rear, and soon married Mr. Brown, father of Lela's husband, and lived with him until his death. She had no issue by Mr. Brown. When he died, he was buried separately from the Welsh family, and probably with others of his previous family, so his identity is not definitely known. His son, if ather of Welsh Brown, is dead, but details pertaining to him are not known.

Welsh Brown went to California and there married Gladys Brown. He didd, leaving his widow, and had no children. His widow, Gladys, is understood to reside at 2515 Howard Avenue, San Carloa, California. She was employed at Oakland, California, library, and is now retired.

Samuel (Sam) N. Welsh was a brother of W. E. Welsh, husband of Sarah D. (Sallie) McCarty Welsh, a sister of Jane Smith, who was the mother of Lula Welsh Brown. Jane Smith was also the mother of Eugene B. Smith and Mrs. Emma Winana (Smith) Hargrove.

Mrs. J. L. McClain, Route 1, Box 201, AlA, Minden, Ka., 71055 asks where in Georgia was Bazil SMITH born in August 1793? He married Malinda Simmons somewhere in Georgia in 1812 and they had at least nine children Prudia, Patience, John, William, Henry, Joseph, Sanders, Ezekiel and Nathaniel, all born in Georgia before the family moved to Louisiana in 1840. She also would like to locate the family bible and will be glad to exchange information and records.

PRINTER'S COMMENT:

This document has been very difficult to put together. Information on the family was received from thirteen different states. All the way from the east to the west coast. Some of this information was well arranged and easy to follow. It was very hard to tell just what the compiler meant on other information received.

We have photographic copies of all the information received.

If anyone would like to see where the John L. Smith family settled, and where some of them are buried, I would be glad to show them.

The price of the booklet is about what it cost to put it together - $2.50.

JOHN (LOGGERHEAD) SMITH

According to the United States census records, John Smith was born in the state of Georgia. According to the same records, John was born in 1830. Between 1830 and 1855, none of the family members seem to have any information on the whereabouts of John Smith. However, we know that he was in Mississippi in 1855. This was the year his first son, Linard, was born and Mississippi is given as the place of his birth.

If information given by some members of the family is correct, John's first marriage ended with the death of his wife. Neither her name or the date of her death is known.

After the death of John's first late wife, he married Mandy Jane Jordan who was born in Alabama. John and Mandy Jane raised a second family.

John Smith was the father of six children. This booklet contains an account of each child and his or her posterity.

PS, According to the cemetery records of Smith County, Mississippi, John Smith is buried in the Mt. Zion Baptist Church Cemetery. No dates of death are given in this book. Only names and cemeteries.

CHAPTER ONE

when I was a small boy, perhaps three or four years old, the hest piece of furniture in our house was a wardrobe. The workmanip of this wardrobe was second to none. In fact, it can best be cribed by saying that it looked like a piece of furniture that been manufactured in a modern furniture plant. Also, in regards this wardrobe, I can remember that when we would have company the ung wives would admire the wardrobe and that my mother would tell om that it was made by LINARD SMITH.

If the United States census records are correct, Linard Smith born in 1855. The place of his birth was Mississippi and very kely Smith County. In searching for information on Linard Smith, contacted a few of the remaining old people, but found that they donly a vague remembrance of the name. Then my wife, Callie raft Anderson, remembered that Mrs. Etta Gibson, who is 84 years 1d, was nis great niece. So, she wrote her a letter and received the following information on L-nard Smith.

You asked if I knew anything about who uncle Leonard Smith married. His wife was my aunt Vicia Craft. Sne was a sister to my grandmother Hester and your grandfather Craft. They had four children that I know of. Two boys, Walter and Dave, two girls, Julie and Vallie. Don't know if they had any more or not.

Callie, don't you guess they could find some information about them from the records at the court house in Varnado. La. That is where they lived.

Walter and his wife came up to visit grandma Hester quite often in her life time. Don't know who their girls married, but their boy's name was William Hennery Smith.

Note: Linard is the spelling used on all the old records. Mrs. Gibson used Leonard which is the way it is spelled today.

Since the above information was typed, we have found out that Leonard Smith was a very active member of Providence Baptist Church. He represented the church at the Smith County Baptist Association and at the General Association several times. Old Associational Minutes.

As can be seen most of the important information for this chapter was supplied by Mrs. Etta Gibson who lives in Jackson, Mississippi.

Andrew Jackson Smith's second marriage was to Rose Hill. Andrew and Rose are buried side by side in the Fairchild Cemetery in Moselle, Mississippi. In 1984 Lois Lillie Mae Smith Thomas placed a tombstone at Andrew's grave at her own expense. This was a noble deed on the part of a person who had probably never seen her grandfather.

BIOGRAPHIES OF ANDREW JACKSON SMITH, MARY JANE VANCE SMITH, AND A FEW OF THEIR DESCENDENTS

ANDREW JACKSON SMITH

FATHER:	John	Smith	- MOTH	ER:
By Grand	i-daug	ghter:	Willie	Mae	Fornia

We only know that Andrew and family lived in and around Laurel, Miss. Willie was remembers when he and first wife, Mary Jane Vance, lived with daughter, Ina. He would go away to work and return. He was a photographer and the family in Miss. has nictures he made.

Lester, his son, told family he also operated a grist mill in Miss. His second wife's name was Rosi? or Rosa? who died before he did. He lived to be well into his 90's, we do not have dates. He is buried in Moselle, Mississippi.

MARY JANE VANCE SMITH

(As told by her grand daughter, Willie Mae Fornia)

During her early life, her mother and father had three children two boys and one girl. Her mother died. Then her father remarried and later he was killed in Civil War. Her stepmother did not want the children, so she put them up for adoption to different homes. Mary Jane never saw her brothers again, but knew they were together at the beginning.

Later she married a Mr. Rusell and they had a son named Bob. I think Mr. Russell died. Then Mary Jane met and married Andrew Jackson Smith and they had two children, Nathan Lester and Ina Ann. This family was greatly affected by the fact that Mary Jane lost her eyesight before Ina was 14 years old. I think that Nathan Lester and ina married about the same time. Close to this time Andrew Jackson Smith chose to live away from his family.

Mary Jame lived with each of her three children at various times during the latter years of her life. She was with her son, Bob, at the time of her death at age 105 years. She is buried in Bessimay, Texas, which is no longer a town. At the time of her death, Bessimay was a small sawmill community.

He was born on January 8, 1892, in Laurel, Mississippi. He had one half brother older than him named Bob Russell. He had one sister younger than him named Ina Annumith. He was listed in Smith County 1910 census as a servant in John Thornton household at 18 years old.

He married Annie Lusenday Wallace, daughter of John Wesley Wallace and Easter Elizabeth Runnels, at age 19 years. They lived in Mississippi and Texas in the early part of their marriage. They raised five children: Sylvester Leddrew born in Chester, Texas; Ruby Marie born in Nhem, Louisiana; Loyce Lillie Mae born in Deweyville, Texas; Eugene Lowell born in Roseborough, Arkansas; Wanda Lea born in Broken Bow, Oklahoma. He spent most of these years in Sawmill work. In Broken Bow he learned to be a machinist, but had an accident and lost four fingers on his left hand; he was still able to work after this. He built a home by himself, for his family, in Broken Bow.

In the early 30s the family moved to Deport, Texas for one year. Mr. Hicks, his shop foreman in Broken Bow, had built his own Machine shop and asked him to return to Idabel and work for him. Following this, he lived in and around Idabel, Oklahoma, farming most of the time, until 1941, when his wife died after 30 years of marriage. Then he went to work a while in Texarkana, Texas doing defence work.

Then he went to Lawton, Oklahoma, where he met and married Nellie Caldwell Moore. They lived in Anadarko, Oklahoma, and he worked in a Defence plant at Fort Still, Oklahoma. He built a home for them in Anadarko. They later moved to Amarillo as Nellie had sons there. He did some work as a machinist and a security guard. They were married for 30 years also.

During his last year of life, he lived in McAlester, Oklahoms. He died in 1971 at age 79 years. He is buried in Oakhill Cemetery in McAlester, Oklahoma.

INA ANN SMITH FORNEA

She was born in December, 1895, in Mississippi. Her mother, Mary Jane Vance Smith, lost her eyesight while Ina was still a child.

She married Charles Otho Fornea in Angle, Louisiana, at age 14. They had five children, but raised only two, a boy and a girl.

She was a housewife and loved to fish, sew, etc. She lived in Angie, louisiana for several years, lived in Texas for a year, and lived for some time in Poplarville, Mississippi, in the community of Steep Hollow, where her husband worked making charcoal.

About the list 20 years of her life were spent in Bogalusa, Louisiana. She died in Bogalusa, but was returned to Angle for burial in 1968 at the age of 72 years.

He was born on March 31, 1917, in Chester, Texas. Since he was school age when the family lived in Deweyville, Texas he probably started school there and attended then both in Roseborough, Arkansas and Broken Bow, Oklahoma, and Deport, Texas finishing 8th grade or grammar school. This was the last public school he attended.

He enlisted in regular army on March 10, 1937 at Dallas, Texas for three years and served in 23rd infantry at Ft. Sam Houston in San Antonio, Texas being discharged June 15, 1940. Re-enlisted June 15, 1940 in 53rd Field Artillery Battalion. In World War II he left the United States July 21, 1943 served in Asiatic Pacific Theater until returning to the states May 8, 1945. Having served on New Guinea and Luzon Islands. He was wounded there on March 27, 1945 loosing his eye.

He married Doris Wanda Lee Overbey of Hayworth, Oklahoma in San Jose, California June 11, 1945. They raised four children. All born in Watsonville, California except 2nd child, Loyce (Name legally changed to Heather Flemming) who was born in Hayworth, Oklahoma when they came back to be with the Overbey family because Mr. Overbey was ill with cancer.

They lived in Okmulgee, Oklahoma long enough for Sylvester to attend a technical automotive school. Returned to Watsonville and he went to work at Ft. Ord, California in the moter pool where he was still employed when he had an automobile accident and was killed in May 1971 at age 54. He is buried in Pajaro Valley Memorial Park in Watsonville. His wife remained a widow and died with cancer July 1983 and is buried beside him at the same site.

RUBY MARIE SMITH ADKINS SIMMONS

MATHER: Nathan Lester Smith

I was born in Nhem, Louisiana, on May 22, 1921. I believe Nhem was in lashington Parish. I went to school in Broken Bow, Oklahoma, the first grade through the fifth grade. I went to school in the sixth grade in a school two miles west of Deport, Texas. We moved back to Idabel, Oklahoma and I went to school there in the seventh grade. We moved to a farm south of Idebel and I went to Hill Top school in the eight grade.

I married Claud Thomas Adkins on February 5, 1935. He passed away May 9, 1963. We had six children. I have twenty-one grandchildren and three great grand-children. We moved from Idabel to McAlester, Oklahoma on July 4, 1949. Iworked two years in cafe work. I did short order cooking in two cafes; one was called the Key Hole and the other was called the Pig and Whistle. I worked from February 28, 1951 to July 1, 1983 at a ladies lingerie factory called Seamprufe Inc., until about 1973 when it changed owners and name to Charles Komar & Sons Inc.

I married Authar Lee Simmons on August 9, 1974. He passed away on August 16,

I am semi-retired and still live in McAlester, Oklahoma, at 403 West Harrison Avenue.

I was born December 2, 1923, in Deweyville, Texas, a small town near Beaumont. I was the third child raised by my parents. I was baptized in Broken Bow, Oklahoma at the Presbeyterian Church at the age of five years, on the same date with my brother Eugene and my sister Wanda. I attended my first three grades of school in Broken Bow; fourth grade in Deport, Texas; fifth grade in Idebel, Oklahoma; sixth grade at Hill Top School in Idebel; seventh grade at Wilson School near Idebel. I attended four years of high school in Idebel and graduated in 1942.

One phase of my life which had a great influence was contracting tuberculosis at age 16 years. I had to leave school in the middle of my senior year and spend six months in Talihina, Oklahoma, in a sanatorium. I returned the following year and completed the full year. I realized that I was ill again and returned to the sanatorium and spent about two years.

Then I entered T.B. nurses training program at McKinght Sanatorium in Texas. My mother died in July, 1941, and our family never all lived together after this time. I completed one year of this two year program and met and married a young man from San Antonio, Texas, but was divorced one year later. Then I met and married Oliver Bernard Thomas, Jr. on October 31, 1946. His profession is projectionist or motion picture machine operator, associated with local union for 37 years. He is retired. We raised two daughters and have two grandchildren.

About 1960, after both daughters were in school, I worked for a doctor in our neighborhood for over 6 years. Then I decided to study more nursing. I attended both practical and professional program at local colleges and graduated in 1973 with an Associate Degree and R.N. Title. I practiced some, at the same time finishing school. I retired in 1975 when I wasn't physically able to work any longer. This has been a very rewarding experience.

We moved about forty, miles north of city to Canyon Lake, Texas, in 1977, where we still reside at 113 Red Oak.

I am as active as my time and health will allow. I am a member of the Luthern Church, Lioness International, VFW Aux., American Association of retired persons, and Extension Homemakers.

EUGENE LOWELL SMITH

FATHER: Nathan Lester Smith NOTHER: Annie Lusenday Wallace

Eugene Lowell Smith was born in Roseborough, Arkansas, on August 15, 1925. He vas the fourth child raised by his parents. While he was still very young, his family moved to Broken Bow, Oklahoma. His family lived there about seven years. He vas baptized in the Presbyterian Church when he was about three years old, on the same date as his sisters, Loyce and Wanda Lee.

Eugene Lowell attended school one year in Broken Bow. Then his family moved to Deport, Texas, in August, during the week of his seventh birthday. His family lived there only a year and thendreturned to Idebel, Oklahoma. His family lived in Idebel and various communities in the area until he was 16 years old. He attended schools in Idebel, Wilson, Hill Top, Harris, and Hayworth.

His mother died in July, 1941 just before World War II and this affected the family life. He went to be with his Aunt Ina Fornea's family in Bogalusa, Louisiana and worked with Willie Mae Fornea making pictures. When he was 17 years old, Willie wae signed as his guardian and he entered the United States Navy. He served aboard the battleship New Jersey, which was in the Japanese Horbor as a sister ship to the USS Missouri when peace was declared.

He was discharged from the navy in California and returned to Willie Mae's in Louisiana. Then he went to PRC College in Poplarville, Mississippi for a while. Then he went to Anadarko and met and married Jean Phillips and started working for U.S. Postal Service. They had one daughter, Linda, but divorced after about five years.

Then he met Joann Morris and they married and had one daughter, Dianne, He continued working with the U.S Postal Service until he retired in August, 1980. He then became ill with cancer and passed away on January 13, 1982. He is buried in Anadarko, Oklahoma.

WANDA LEA SMITH FOX

FATHER: Nathan Lester Smith MOTHER: Annie Lusenday Wallace

I was born in Broken Bow, Oklahoma, on March 17, 1928. I spent my childhood years in Harris, Oklahoma. I completed the eight grade there. We then moved to Anadarko, Oklahoma. I spent a few years as a teenager in Anadarko. I met and married a young man named Winford Garvin. We separated after two years of marriage.

I moved to Texarkana, Texas, and married Calvin Lee Fox. We raised five daughters and one son. We moved from McAlester, Oklahoma to California in about 1952. My first two children were born in Texarkana, Arkansas. The other children were born in California. We then moved from California to Krebs, Oklahoma, in 1972.

My husband, Calvin, died in 1978. I live in Krebs, Oklahoma and have one daughter, 13 years old, still at home. I am working as the home provider through Welfare in McAlester, Oklahoma.

WILLIE MAE FORNEA

FATHER: Charles Otho Fornea

MOTHER: Ina Ann Smith

I was born on December 22, 1912 in Angie, Louisians. My first memories are of a playmate and this was the one year that my family lived in Texas. We returned to Angie and surrounding area, where we lived on a farm. My mother lost several children, but raised two, my brother, Charles Lee, who is nine years younger than me, and myself.

I can remember when I started school. We lived about two miles from Angie, where my father owned a home and small farm. He worked at this time on the rail road. I attended all eleven years of school in angle. I graduated from high school there.

I was named after the doctor that delivered me. His daughter was my first grade teacher. During the last years of school, I was allowed to studen teach her pupils.

At about 10 years old, I had my tonsils removed by the local doctor in his office. At about 12 years old, I had typhoid fever. I was attended by Dr. Willie McNeese, the same doctor that delivered me. I had a complete recovery.

After graduating from high school, I went to New Orleans for a short period. Then I returned to Bogalusa, where I met and married Jo Franz. He was a sign painter at the carnival. We bought picture making machines and at one time we had eight operating over Louisiana and Mississippi. We had no family, but were married about five years.

In 1946, I met and married Benjimine Frank Runnels and we had one daughter, Sarah Ruth, born when I was 47 years old, in Morton, Mississippi.

We continued our picture making business. We later went to Bogalusa, where we bought a home at 1105 Long Avenue, where all the family lived together a while, and my brother married. My father and mother bought a home at 1314 Dan Street, where they still lived when they both died.

We lived and worked in New Orleans, where my husband was a brick mason. In a few years, he went back to Mississippi, and I worked at Red Star Yeast Plant for 13 years in New Orleans. After I stopped working at this plant, I stayed in New Orleans and worked at various jobs. These included selling Avon and Stanley products. I also worked at the Dutch Boy doughnut shop. While working in the doughnut shop, I fell and broke my leg and was disabled for a year.

I left New Orleans and bought a trailer home and lived on my brother's property in Pride, Louisiana for a while. I then decided to move to Keller, Texas to be near my daughter and her family, where I still live.

CHAPTER FOUR

MYNERVA SMITH

It seems that in every family tree booklet there is always a short chapter. This short chapter is caused by a child marrying and not having any children. Also, a member of the family sometimes chooses not to marry.

In the case of Mynerva Smith, who was born April 25, 1882 and died on September 22, 1973, she was married to A.B. Jones, but had no children.

GREAT GRANDMOTHER ELIZABETH ANN BARNWELL SMITH

John Honeycutt of Virginia, gave my cousins, Rev. George Thompson (a methodist retired minister), living in McComb, Mississippi, and married to Miss Scott, a sister of the Mayor of Jackson, Mississippi (Walter Scott), the family record. My great, great grandfather was Joseph Thompson who married Sally Jolly at Muscadine Campground, on the Alabama line. Their children were: Joseph, John, Ransom, Robert, Zachariah, Rebeccah and Mary. Ramsom Thompson, my great, great grandfather, married Ann Dalrymple and their children were, James D., Joseph C., Samuel D., John William, S. Dudley H., Robert King, Zachary Tobias, Elisabeth Rebeccah, Mary Ann and Sarah A.

Samuel D. Thompson, my great grandfather, married Elizabeth Ann Barnwell whose birth was July 11, 1804. Great grandfather was born February 17, 1810. Their children were: Dave, Monroe, Columbus, Harvey, Robert, Cynthia, Mary and Elizabeth Ann (my grandmother). Grandmother married John Ferguson and had one daughter, Minerva, who married Bob Bowling. Their children are Johnnie, Lela Bowling Kelly, Fannie Fowling Frye, Lizzie Bowling and Wallace Bowling.

My grandmother after John Ferguson's death, married my grandfather, Ira Foster Smith. Their children were: Luther, Daniel Harvey, Robert (Bobby), Elnathan (Nay), Mary, Laura, Charles (Charlie) and Lorenzo.

DANIEL HARVEY SMITH IMMEDIATE FAMILY

My father married Eleanor Jane Gray in Raleigh, Mississippi, February 10, 1886. They had a large wedding and I meet people every now and then who were present at their wedding and they tell me about things that happened; such as the incident when grandfather had the old horse "dobbin" near the house and he got into the yard some way, reached his long neck in the kitchen window and ate some of the wedding cakes while the wedding supper was in full sway. The great bowls of floating isles and platters of fried chicken have also been described to me. Father was born December 9, 1866, and mother was born October 31, 1870.

Their first child, Jane or Janie, was born November 18, 1886. Janie married Benjamin Franklin Ferguson from Rankin County, Mississippi. They had one child, Mary Buren. Janie died February 24, 1939.

Second child, Rose or Rosie, born March 13, 1889, married Albert Franklin Church from New Orleans, Louisiana. Their children are: Daniel Franklin, James Frederick, Cora Gray and Betty Ruth. Daniel Franklin married Hulda Engle from Mobile, Alabama. They have one child, Daniel, Jr. James Frederick married a Miss Landcaster from Taylorsville, Mississippi. Cora Gray married Harold Gordon from Mobile, Alabama.

The third child, Buren, born August 16, 1890, married Fred Holcomb from Covington County, Mississippi. They had two sons Hilman and W. J. Their oldest son, Hilman, finished law at Yale University. Buren died July 2, 1924. Her children are now married and living in California and they have children.

The fourth child, Eugene Edward, born February 4, 1892. Eugene married Ouida Reddoch from Taylorsville, Mississippi. Their children are Charles Eugene and James Reddoch. Eugene and Ouida have been teaching in the Foxworth School for the past 12 or 15

MOTHER

My mother, Eleanor Jane Gray, was born October 31, 1870, and died April 20, 1927, at 2 o'clock in the morning. She was very sick for nearly eight months. She was very patient and tried so hard to get well. She had a breast amputation; infection followed, which developed into abscessed cancer. She was in every way a precious woman, with a very kind heart and was never known to have an enemy. She fought for everything honorable and upright. Her funeral was beautiful, with many floral offerings. She was a great lover of home and children. Her last wishes were, first, that her children should take care of Dan, the husband and father; second, that all her children be with her when she died.

My mother's people, the Grays and Smiths, came from Alabama into Mississippi. Originally they were from the Carolinas. I have no direct family record of the Grays except that of Grandfather, George Harris Gray, who was born November 15, 1838, and died January 18, 1903.

Grandmother Gray, whose maiden name was Martha Caroline Smith, was born September 25, 1838, and died December 2, 1908. Grandmother Gray was the daughter of John Diamond Smith, whose people were connected with Major David Smith, who was one of the first settlers in Smith County, Mississippi. Smith County was named for him. This family of Smith's were Indian fighters. Major David Smith's granddaughter married Governor Runnels, the first governor of Mississippi. The old home, the Hadley Boarding House, still stands in Jackson, Mississippi, where the first constitution of Mississipi was drawn up in 1817.

Grandmother Gray's people were of tall Scotch and English stock.

After searching many books on Geneology, I find the Gray name going back all the way to William De Crey (In American English, William Gray), the last conqueror of England. He conquered England by kindness together with force in 1056. The Treaty of Ghent closed the struggle. Almost every Gray family all the way back had its same family names as: William, George, Edward and John.

My grandfather and grandmother, George Harris Gray and Martha Caroline Smith, were married July 13, 1865. Their children were: John and Willie Gray, twins, born July 27, 1866. George Washington Gray, born June 29, 1867. George Edward Gray, born July 31, 1868. Martha Caroline (Aunt Pearl), born September 20, 1869. Eleanor Jane Gray (mother), born October 31, 1870. William Ralph Gray, born November 20, 1871. Ira Theodocia, born March 19, 1873.

All members of my mother's family are dead at this writing, October, 1943.

SALATHIEL SMITH, An Average Man

By: Julia C. Guice Nap Cassibry, II

Salathiel Smith occupies a place in the history of our Gulf Coast region as the average man. He is not known for any great act or deed, but rather represents the general population who helped to establish and build the Mississippi Gulf Coast. He was a carpenter by trade; held a public office for a short time; was a Confederate veteran who fought for his beliefs and was the sire of a large family whose descendants live today in our communities.

My interest in Mr. Smith is that I am a direct descendant of this family. Nap's interest came through his many years of work in compiling a history of the Ladner families which we all hope that he will offer for publication in the future. It was by chance that we learned of each others interest and the publication of this article. Yet, despite the best efforts of the both of us, we still cannot determine the origin of Salathiel Smith. We would both appreciate any documented proof that any of our readers might have to offer on Salathiel Smith's origin and his parents.

While we know that Smiths appear long before Salathiel made himself known in Harrison County, we have been able to distinguish between all these Smiths and Salathiel, and no kindred ties exist. Salathiel first appears of record when he and Sarah Ann Elizabeth Jones were issued a marriage license. This is recorded in Marriage Book 2 at page 20 dated July 22, 1852. Their subsequent marriage was performed by A. Clark, Justice of the Peace and recorded of record by L. Cleveland, Clerk of Court, on December 28th, 1852.

Again, we cannot positively identify Sarah Ann Elizabeth Jones, but we believe that she could have been the Eliza Jones, age 21, born in Alabama and living in the household of G. M. Reeves in the 1850 Census of Harrison County. We believe that no children were born of this marriage and that Elizabeth died prior to 1854.

It was on March 14, 1854 that Salathiel Smith and Clementine Ladner, daughter of Jean Baptiste (John) Ladner and Bridget Cuevas, were married and began their life that continues to flourish through their descendants in our community today. This marriage is recorded in Marriage Book 3 at page 15 in Harrison County Circuit Clerk's office at Gulfport, Mississippi. Salathiel and Clementine and their family appear in the Census of 1860 through 1880 and he appears in the 1900 and 1910 census records of Harrison County.

We know that Salathiel was a literate man of some education, but official keepers of records did variously name him as "Salaphil", "Salathal", "Salathial" and sometime as just plain "S. Smith". From his written signatures he always signed as "Salathiel Smith" and we believe that to be his real and correct name.

This is the name that is carried of record in the Archives of the United States Postal Service, Washington, D.C. Probably the only reasonable claim to fame that Salathiel Smith could name was his appointment as the first postmaster of record when the post office was established in Mississippi City, Mississippi on March 31, 1854. He served in that post until his successor was appointed on July 7, 1854. That second postmaster lasted only one month and Salathiel Smith was again appointed as postmaster on August 8, 1854 (for one day only) and a successor to him was appointed on August 9, 1854. So ended the career of Salathiel Smith as a public official.

We next find Salathiel and Clementine in the 1860 Census of Harrison County, living adjacent to her parents on the "Old Chimneys" homestead, Rosalie Station, Long Beach, Mississippi. Their family has increased with the birth of Julia Smith for whom I am named, born December 30, 1854; Frazene Smith (also known as Odell and Tazzie), born May 10, 1856 and their first son, Salathiel C. "Bully" Smith, born June 15th, 1858.

Julia Smith was born December 30, 1854 in Mississippi City and married Arthur (Archie) Balius April 18, 1872 (Harrison County Marriage Book 6, page 119/BVM Nativity Church, Biloxi, Mississippi Marriage Book II, page 115, act 867).

On April 18, 1872, I joined in matrimony Arthur Balius, legitimate son of Ramond Balius and Cecile Fayard, and Julia Smith, daughter of Celethial Smith and Clementine Ladner. They were married in Church, dispensed from all banns. No impediment was found.

Witnesses were:

R.M. Balius Michel Louge Cecilia Balius Cecila Balius

Rev. P. Chevalier, Pastor

Their two oldest children, Henry born about 1876 and Adolph born about 1874 was lost at sea in the 1893 storm. Their first daughter Sara Julia Balius born January 20, 1876 and married Joseph Rhodes February 20, 1893, (Harrison County Marriage Book 10, page 40) and Sara died May 28, 1961. I am directly descended from this line. Other children were Varina Balius married Joe Bills December 17, 1893 (Harrison County Marriage Book 10, page 402/BVM Nativity Church Book II page 29, act 171); Tony Balius born about October 1894 and married Bertha Raymond December 31, 1919, (Harrison County Marriage Book 31, page 482); Ida Delphine Balius was born November 13, 1890 and married Albert Toncrey February 18, 1907, (Harrison County Marriage Book 18, page 580); Clara Balius born July 1888 and married Frank Diaz September 5, 1908, (Harrison County Marriage Book 21, page 44); and Guy (George Edward) Balius born September 1883 and married Amelia Vernier December 12, 1902, (Harrison County Marriage Book 14, page 157) and died September 10, 1928.

The Daily Herald, August 9, 1950

MRS. BALIUS DIES

Mrs. Julia Balius, 98, widow of Archie Balius, native of Mississippi City and resident of Biloxi 80 years, died at 3:58 a.m. today at Memorial Hospital, Gulfport. Mrs. Balius is survived by a son, Anthony; four daughters, Mrs. Jos. Rhodes Sr., Bay St. Louis; Mrs. J. C. The Funeral will be from Bradford Funeral Home at 3 p.m. Thursday with services at Epworth Methodist Church by Rev. Winston O'Neal. Burial will be in the Biloxi Cemetary.

Euphrasie (Odell-Tazzie) Smith born May 10, 1856 in Long Beach married Rudolph Balius, (a brother of Archie Balius, husband of Julia Smith), May 19, 1879, (Harrison County Marriage Book 7, page 82).

Their children, Joseph Balius born June 1880 and married Jane Dismukes on March 12, 1904 (Harrison County Marriage Book 15, page 260); Cornelius Balius born September 1, 1883 married Louise Fergonise October 25, 1902 (Harrison County Marriage Book 14, page 117) and died May 9, 1952; Lilly Balius born June 1887 and married 1st Christian Agregaard March 29, 1902, (Harrison County Marriage Book 13, page 390, Nativity BVM Book 5, page 36, act 211), married 2nd Mr. Leon Dubbison; Lillian Balius married Frank Dismukes, Sr. (brother of Jane, wife of Joseph Balius) November 3, 1909, (Harrison County Marriage Book 21, page 338); Adolph born June 16, 1892 married Sophia Banta May 16, 1914, (Harrison County Marriage Book 27, page 23), and died August 17, 1956; and Hypolite W. Balius was born January 30, 1904 and was married 4 times, 1st Josephine Randazzo, May 20, 1926, 2nd Karey Lee Lindsey, 3rd Eunice Overstreet, and 4th Clara Foster. Hypolite died May 9, 1949.

Tazzie died June 4, 1937 and is buried in the Biloxi Cemetary.

MRS. BALIUS DIES

Mrs. Tazzie Odele Balius, nee Smith, 74, died at 12:35 p.m. today at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Dismukes, 1001 Caillavet Street. She was the widow of Rudolph Balius, and was born in Long Beach, but had lived here 60 years. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Dismukes and Mrs. L.S. Dubisson, Hattiesburg and four sons, Joseph, Cornelius, Adolph and Hipolyte Balius; twenty-four grandchildren and twenty-two great grandchildren and three sisters, Mrs. Julia Balius, Biloxi; Mrs. Sophie Eldridge, Long Beach, and Mrs. Mary Mermillion, New Orleans. The funeral will be at 8:30 a.m. tomorrow from the home and at 9 a.m. from St. John's Catholic Church with requiem mass by Father J. P. McGlade.

Salathiel C. "Bully" Smith was born June 15, 1858 and married September 5, 1879 (Harrison County Marriage Book 7, page 27) Celina Valet, a native of France. It is believed that they had a daughter who married Matt Browning and another daughter who married Archie Cameron, but we have no recorded proof. Any documented information on the family of Bully and Celina will be appreciated by the writers.

Their 4th child, a son, Lovence Smith was born September 11, 1860. Lovence and Josephine Deloney (Delony) were married March 4, 1897 (Harrison County Marriage Book 11, page 139). Josephine was the daughter of Robert Delony. Their children, Neal Alford Smith married Edith Dyers (Diaz). He died October 25, 1968 in New Orleans, LA and is buried in Harvey, LA. Anita married George E. Dowling; Charles and Leroy Smith are the remaining members of this family and on which we have no further information.

Dark clouds of violence and hatred swept across the nation, shots were fired in anger in Charleston Harbor and the War between the states became a reality. Although he was a settled man with a young family, Salathiel Smith heard the call to arms. He was mustered into service by B. G. Dahlgreen on October 8, 1861 at Pass Christian, Mississippi for a period of twelve months, but this was only the beginning of a nearly 4 year ordeal.

The Archives at Jackson, Mississippi contain a wealth of information on the service of Salathiel Smith, and we will try and condense this to essential facts.

After his enlistment, he was assigned as a teamster to Company H, 3rd Regiment Mississippi Infantry, CSA (This company was successively designated as Captain Green's Company, old Company D and new Company H 3rd Regiment Mississippi Infantry.)

He was then assigned, (under Col. Mellon) for a period of time as the Company's butcher. The muster rolls show that he was on duty for an extended period of time during the summer and fall of 1862 at Pass Christian, Mississippi and in reality from the time he enlisted until late 1862 when he was then shown on extra duty at Vicksburg as a teamster from February thru April 1863. He is shown on the Roll of Prisoners of War at Vicksburg on July 4, 1863 and July 10, 1863. He is shown as absent on parole from that time to April 1, 1864 when he is then at Parole Camp, Demopolis, Alabama. Finally, on February 28,1865, his army career was at an end and he returned home to his family.

Salathiel and Clementine, during his detached duty stay at Pass Christian in 1862 were expecting a child who was born February 26, 1863, named Thomas (Jessie?) Smith. This son appears in the 1870 Census but does not ever appear again and it is presumed that he died sometime after 1870 and before 1880.

Their next child was a daughter Sophia Smith, who was born January 30, 1867. (Nativity B.V.M. Book 2, page 83, act 644).

On December 27, 1871, I baptized Sophie Smith, daughter of Celethial Smith and Clementine Ladner, born January 30, 1867. Sponsors were Eugene Breuer and Cleste Ladner.

Rev. P. Chevalier, Pastor

Sophia Smith married February 10, 1881 to Charles Austin, (Harrison County Marriage Book 7, page 283). The only information we have on this family is that they had two sons, Fred, born August 29, 1882 and Charles, Jr., born August 23, 1884. She later married a Mr. Eldridge and lived in Long Beach.

Then Fanny Martha Smith was born May 4, 1870. (Nativity BVM Book 2, page 83, act 645).

On December 27, 1871, I baptized Fanny Martha Smith, daughter of Celethial Smith and Clementine Ladner, born May 4, 1870. Sponsors were Jean Baptiste Dubuisson and Euphrasine Smith.

Rev. P. Chevalier, Pastor

She married 1st Sam Christovich February 10, 1885 (Harrison County Marriage Book 8, page 75) and after death of first husband married W. W. Lowry Februray 24, 1902, (Harrison County Book 13, page 367). She had two daughters by Sam Christovich, Olivia, born June 1899 and Laura born September 1890. We have no further information on this family. Fanny died October 20, 1920.

MRS. LOWERY BURIED TODAY

Mrs. Fanny Lowery, age 50 years, a native of Mississippi who had been making her home in San Antonia, Texas, died in that City Wednesday morning at 4:35. Deceased is survived by a husband and relatives. The remains were brought to Biloxi, arriving here yesterday morning at 11:00 from the home of her sister, Mrs. Julia Balius. Services were conducted in the Methodist Church by Rev. M. B. Sharbrough with interment in the local cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Lowery formerly lived in Biloxi where the family was well known.

Their 5th daughter, Mary W. Smith, was born February 14, 1873 and is believed to have married a man named Mermillon and lived in New Orleans, LA.

Their last child, a son, Duncan Smith was born April 30, 1875 in Long Beach. Duncan married Amanda Dedeaux March 10, 1894, Harrison County Marriage Book 10, page 183).

From this marriage we know that three children were born. Agnes Smith born September 20, 1895 and married Joseph Hatem. She died in 1973 and is buried in Long Beach Cemetary. Richard Smith, born January 17, 1899 married Audrey Northern. He died in 1954 and is buried in Long Beach Cemetary. Stephen A. Smith, born September 2, 1909, married Emma Mosely. Stephen died July 2, 1972 and is buried in Long Beach Cemetary.

Duncan Smith died December 30, 1936 and is buried in Long Beach Cemetary.

DUNCAN SMITH DIES

Duncan Smith, 61 years old, died at his home in Long Beach Wednesday afternoon at 4:00. He was born at Long Beach and lived there all of his life. Surviving him are the wife, Mrs. Amanda Smith, and three children, Mrs. J. A. Hatem and Richard and Stephen Smith, all of Long Beach. Funeral Services will be held at the home and the Long Beach Catholic Church this afternoon at 3:00. Rev. Father Thomas Lilly, pastor of the Long Beach Catholic Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Long Beach Cemetary.

Although Clementine Ladner Smith, born February 25, 1834, had lived a long and fruitful life, her last years were to be plagued with trouble and disappointment.

On March 19, 1890, Ramie Ladner and Franzine Taquino, her brother and sister, after the death of their mother, Bridget Cuevas Ladner (John Ladner having previously died), brought a lawsuit to partition the lands owned by the family or in the alternative to force sell these lands and divide the proceeds among the heirs. Although Nap Cassibry is preparing an article based on this law suit, suffice to say, the lands were sold at the forced sale. The suit stated that the lands known as "Old Chimneys" and the acreage north of said lands across the railroad, consisting of 53½ acres of "meadowlands" were appraised by Mr. McCaughan and a friend of his for $1,200.00 and $69.30, respectively!! They sold at the forced sale to Mr. W. J. Quarles for these prices; later Quarles transferred the Old Chimneys land to McCaughan and retained the acreage. Clementine Ladner Smith received as her full share the sum of $178.74, after costs expenses and attorney fee of $75.00 had been deducted from the combined sale price of $1,269.30.

Clementine Ladner Smith died November 1, 1892 and is buried in the Long Beach, Mississippi cemetary.

Salathiel Smith and Clementine lived for a long number of years at their home property in Long Beach, Mississippi. They had received their homestead from John and Bridget Ladner, through Warranty Deed filed and of record in the Courthouse of Gulfport, Mississippi and a part of the full original grant made to Nicholas Christian Ladner by the Spanish Government. This property is more commonly known today as "Old Chimneys" and the Widow Ladner Claim, and was actually occupied and homesteaded by Claude Ladner, a son of Nicholas Christian Ladner, for a number of years before being then occupied by John and Bridget Ladner. These records being a part of Nap's file of the Ladner family and a part of his research records.

Salathiel Smith later removed to the Confederate Veterans Home at Beauvoir, Biloxi, Mississippi, where he died at 1:30~a.m., March $31,\ 1915$. He was attended in his last illness and at his death by Dr. H. M. Folkes.

S. SMITH DIES OF OLD AGE

S. Smith, one of the oldest men in Harrison County, passed away in the Soldiers' Home, in which institution he had been an inmate for some years, last Tuesday, and his remains were brought here for interment. He was 95 years old and a carpenter by profession and he worked at his trade up to a few years ago when he was forced by extreme weakness to lay down his tools. He is survived by nine children, the most of whom live in this section. The funeral ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Jenkins.

His death certificate and burial records from Bradford Funeral Home shows the cause of death as senility at age 95 years. That he was born in the year 1820 and that his parents were unknown. His body was sent by G. & M. C. Traction Company Car to Long Beach, Mississippi where he was buried that same day, beside his wife in the Long Beach, Mississippi Cemetary, March 31, 1915. So ends our story of an average man, Salathiel Smith.

Biography

Arthur Smith recalls presidents and governors

By JOANNE GEORGE ANDERSON

"He that hath a trade, hath an estate."

-Benjamin Franklin

Printer, publisher, war veteran, state legislator, postmaster, columnist, civic leader - and above all a gentleman and devoted family man. Arthur V. Smith has been one of Jackson County's finest ambassadors to other parts of the United States and remains an active voice and influence in his community.

Born on Nov. 22, 1893, Smith was apprenticed as a printer's devil with the Moss Point Advertiser when it was established in 1909. Though he went on to accumulate a competency which enabled him to devote many of his adult years to public service, he has perhaps always thought of himself first as a printer.

"There is nothing better than setting type in a job form, then standing back and looking at it," Smith said. "You see your finished work as a result of skill, knowledge and patience and it's a great feeling of accomplishment."

Learning the prirter's trade at age 15. Smith later took linotype courses in New Orleans and for three years worked in ofices in Mississippi. Alabama, Oklahoma, Kansas, and Missouri. A graduate of Moss Point High School, Smith broadened his advention through reading "I enent ing, publishing, or something related to both," Smith explained.

A. H. Smith sold his interest to Fails and at age 40 pneumonia claimed his life. He was one of two sons of William H. Smith, a Scotsman who came to this country before the Civil War and established a home and sawmill on Smith's Lake, east of Escatawpa. His wife was a native of Noxubee County.

"Other citizens of Moss Point and Pascagoula who were born in the vicinity of Smith Lake during the years sawmills were nearby and Elder's Ferry was in operation were former Cong. William M. Colmer, Banker President W. B. Herring, those of the Rhodes, Cirlot, Elder, Wilcox and other families," Smith recalled.

After serving in World War I as a sergeant in the newly formed tank corps at a camp in Gettysburg, Pa., (Maj, Dwight D. Eisenhower was his commanding officer), Arthur Smith returned to Moss Point in 1919 to befome editor of the Advertiser. When fire destroyed the plant of the Chronicle-Star in Pascagoula in 1921, the Advertiser bought the subscription list, and Smith edited both papers for 14 years. He sold his share in the papers in 1930 to the Herring estate. Easton King and Pulitzer Prize winning editor Ira B. Harkey Jr. were among subsequent owners.

"Newspaper editors in my day learned their profession the hard way " he said "Most advanced from

Smith and his Road, Ferries and Bridges Committee laid out and established Mississippi's first highway system in 1924 and 1926. "I was selected chairman because Jackson County had made tremendous progress in road construction in the state, having the first major highway (U.S. 90) which ran from county line to line. Pieces of it still remain south of the new U. S. 90 and through Gulf Hills and St. Martin. In those days highways followed the old paths. People acted up over any road change. Ocean Springs wouldn't have Highway 90 anywhere else so it was routed through the bayous and up into Gulf Hills."

During his second term Smith was chairman of the Public Printing Committee helping to thwart the plans of Bilbo for a state owned-and-operated printing plant, which would publish all state and county publications and forms. "The American Book Company had their lobbyists there." he said. "Our committee was packed with printers and editors and though the bill was passed in the Senate twice we killed it both times in the House."

Among Misstssippi governors, Smith rates Martin S. (Mike) Conner (1932-36) and J. P. Coleman (1956-60) the highest. "Bilbo (1916-20 and 1928-32) may be rated the best by some, but Conner and Coleman along with Fielding Wright were the only ones who approached being intellectual.

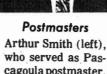

very sick with tuberculosis. The harm it did to me was it made me pull my punches. I was always afraid of another breakdow and I learned just how far I could go."

Smith won the fight against tuberculosis, but lost his try for a third term in the legislature. "The great issue at that time was the stock law," he said. "I supported for the cities the stock law which included fencing cattle. As a result I lost the rural vote and the election."

But defeat was not to become a pattern in his political activities. In 1931, he began organizing the congressional district on behalf of the candidacy of a lawyer-politician named William M. Colmer, Smith's boyhood friend. "I knew every newspaperman in the district and influential people in every county. It was a corny campaign, the main issue being reducing taxes, but a fascinating one. I wrote all the press releases and posters. We flooded the whole district with a Colmer edition of the paper. We hired every schoolteacher in town at 50 cents a day to help address the papers which we 'mailed to the more than 16,000 voters." The outcome is history. Smith's friend won and went on to serve more terms (40 years) in the U.S. Congress than any other Mississippian.

On Jan. 1, 1935, Smith was appointed Pascagoula postmaster by President Franklin D. Roosevelt. He held the position for 29 years at the Krebs

Learning the prirter's trade at age 15, Smith later took linotype courses in New Orleans and for three years worked in ofices in Mississippi, Alabama, Oklahoma, Kansas, and Missouri. A graduate of Moss Point High School, Smith broadened his education through reading. "I spent every day in the Advertiser Office," he said. "The exchange fascinated me." (The exchange involves the custom of trading newspapers with other cities on a no-cost basis.)

The young Smith read 10 to 12 newspapers a day through the exchange, including the Times-Democrat, now the New Orleans Times-Picavune.

"Radio was not to be available until 1921," Smith said. "We had no public library." The schools emphasized the basics. Progressive and permissive education were in the future. "The schools emphasized English grammar and composition," he said. "We had to learn to spell."

Smith's father was a great influence in his son's life and education. He was A. H. Smith, Moss Point's second mayor and later a sheriff of Jackson County, who saw that all six of his children were graduated from Moss Point High School. He encouraged his children to read, keeping current subscriptions to McClure's, Scribbler's and other magazines available to his family. (Mrs. A. H. Smith was the former Ella Brooks of Brooksville, Miss.)

"Father was a emarkable man,"
Smithsaid. "He made money farming.
He then became a bookkeeper for a merchantile firm before going into the livery business. Except for two years with this firm with the intention of learning of livery and undertaking business, I have always been in print-

14 years. He sold his share in the papers in 1930 to the Herring estate. Easton King and Pulitzer Prize winning editor Ira B. Harkey Jr. were among subsequent owners.

"Newspaper editors in my day learned their profession the hard way," he said. "Most advanced from the mechanical production end like myself. If a fellow in the print shop decided to thumb his nose at me, I could walk in and do his job until a replacement could be found, this being before shops were unionized."

During those years, he served two terms in the Mississippi Legislature (1924-1932) and was one of the organizers of the Pascagoula Pier Commission, serving as its first secretary. Active in the Mississippi Press Association, he was its president in 1934 and headed the Graphic Arts Committee, a wartime group which endeavored to keep small newspapers afloat. "Many did not make it," Smith said, "and others suspended publication in later years because of obsolescence of equipment and changes in mechanical production."

As a legislator Smith held two key house chairmanships of the Roads, Ferries and Bridges Committee under Gov. Henry Whitfield and the Public Printing Committee under Gov. Theodore G. Bilbo.

"When Whitfield took office, the state was in a financial morass. He was a man of high morals and standards and deep sincerity. I believe it was the best session the legislature ever had. It passed income tax and inheritance laws and established new sources of revenue to pay old debts and establish a surplus. Whitfield surrounded himself with the best people. He was not an intellectual."

Among Mississippi governors. Smith rates Martin S. (Mike) Conner (1932-36) and J. P. Coleman (1956-60) the highest, "Bilbo (1916-20 and 1928-32) may be rated the best by some, but Conner and Coleman along with Fielding Wright were the only ones who approached being intellectual. Some governors were beyond the mediocre. Some governors held down the line. Some were ineffectual. But sometimes people in public life are too far ahead of the average. Conner was Yale-educated and people couldn't understand his far-headed thinking and resented it." (Conner created the sales tax as a source of revenue.)

In 1924, Smith married a young school teacher from Durant, Miss., the former Ollie Parkinson. They had met in Moss Point where the future Mrs. Smith was boarding at the Castanera house and teaching in the elementary school system. The Smiths moved to Pascagoula in 1927. They have three children, Arthur V. Smith Jr., a Mobile realtor; Jack C. Smith, an Ingalls purchasing department employe; Mrs. Paul (Nancy) Ryan of Woodbridge, Va., wife of a Marine lieutenant colonel, and 10 grandchildren.

During Smith's second term in office he began a two-and one-half year fight against tuberculosis. "I was pretty sick," he said. "I had a far advanced case. Treatment then was immobilization in bed so that the lungs could heal. I was in the Mississippi sanitorium for nine months and then two years in a federal hospital in Kentucky where I went to vocational school. I was 40 years old then. My wife worked at the newspaper while I was gone. The paper went right on and I got well. When I went to the state sanitorium I had two sisters there who were also

The outcome is history. Smith's friend won and went on to serve more terms (40 years) in the U.S. Congress than any other Mississippian.

On Jan. 1, 1935, Smith was appointed Pascagoula postmaster by President Franklin D. Roosevelt. He held the position for 29 years at the Krebs Avenue post office and two new facilities, one on South Pascagoula Street (ntw the Pascagoula City Library) built in 1936 and the present building occupied in 1963. Two major wars occurred during his administration. World WAR II and the Korean conflict. "Both brought enormous growth in the mail service." he said. "In World War II, Pascagoula became the most impacted city in the south causing a U.S. Senate subcommittee to hold hearing here. Sen. Claude Pepper was chairman." .

As a result Postmaster Smith received a one-sentence letter of authority from the Postmaster General to hire and fire whatever help he could, buy on the open market and report to Washington, bypassing all established procedures. "One unique operation was to organize a staff of five women letter carriers, all wives of men in the service, for five hours work a day," he said. "The unit here and one in San Francisco were the first in the country."

Smith's most vivid memories of U.S. history involve World War II. "I remember when this town harbored 1,000 British sailors on the Pascagoula beach. Several hundred French sailors were quartered near Ocean Springs. Ingalls was building ships for the British and French. I knew all those folks. We were right in the middle of everything. The infiltration of Pascagoula

INTRODUCTION

THE SMITH LINEAGE

Search as we may, it seems that there are still many unanswered questions about the Smith's that inhabit Pearl River County, Mississippi, and beyond. We, the authors, would like to share with you the secrets of the past that we have uncovered thus far. The question that always arises is "Where do I begin the presentation of this wast amount of information?" First, we would like to present a copy of an old letter which briefly summarizes this lineage. The following is a letter from Harvey Burks, grandson of virginia Jane Smith and Daniel Burks to Thomas Calvert Burge. The original is in the possession of Mrs Fred Thornhill of Poplarville, Mississippi. Due to the writing of the letter, it must be put on the next 2 pages.

After you have viewed and read those two pages, there are more pages that will continue our proof of our descendant"s. With this skeleton, we begin. It seems that the oldest Smith descendant was Andrew Smith. Since this takes us back to the time of the Revolutionary War, we begin to search the roster of soldiers. On page 160 of Georgia"s Roster of the Revolution by Lucian lamar Knight, we find "Smith, Andrew. Order of Ex. Council for 2 bounties of 2872 acres each in Washington Co. as per certificate annexed. May 17, 1784. On page 189 of this same book, we find "Wheat, John. Certificate of Elijah Clarke, Col., Feb. 2, 1784." Following this line, we sent for a record of this from the National Archives. The results are as follows on the third pages and the next pages after.

After further research, we find that Nancy Kennedy is just Indian, so we begin to check the Indian relia. On the Cherokee roll, we find Maher. However, no Nancy Kennedy appears, but the name Maher is on roll. On the Choctaw roll, we find a Mary terredy, but no Nancy. A well-known consultant on inian blood lines, Mrs. Mildred E. Grant, 3404 reall St., Tallahassee, Fla. 32301, says that

From this point forward, we will call the older American Smith, Andrew Smith, Sr., and his son, American Smith, Jr.. We find no evidence that they these names. In this publication they are simply to avoid confussion of father and son.

After much research, this is how the story in together. Andrew Smith, Sr, a soldier in we herelutionary War in Georgia, was in the same army as John Wheat. They fought together and stened Tory, British, and Hessian melt away in make of their muskets. It was here that army Smith, Sr., served as a surgeon's mate.

It married Nancy Kennedy, whose mother was a choctaw Indian. Smith, being a Revolutionary veteran, laid claim to a large tract land, but as he cleared it one day a hostile intension slew him.

After Smith's death at the hand of an Indian, Kennedy Smith, half Indian Herself, was left bloom with her only son, Andrew Smith, Jr. But is not unusual in those olden days for a man be marry his brother's widow, or a man to marry misters in succession after one passed away, if i friend to take the place of a lost one.

John Wheat married Nancy Kennedy Smith.

THE SMITH FAMILY

(Handwritten among the McKeithen Papers, Moore County)

A genealogical sketch of the Smith family as descended from John Smith who landed in the county of Bladen (now Cumberland) in the year of 1735 with his two children Malcom and Jacob, his wife Margaret Gilchrist having died on the voyage up the Cape Fear River after leaving Wilmington, NC. As to what part of Scotland he came from I'm not sure, but from the Highlands of one of the Isles west or northwest of Skye.

There is no account to be had on his life, death or burial. His son, Malcom next appeared as an elder of a Presbyterian Church organized in 1765. His will, the original copy I hear, written 27 February 1776, fixes his domicile as being at or near the Old Smith Homestead and cemetery. The homestead is yet in possession of his descendants.

Malcom Smith married Mrs Eliza McKeasick, who before her first marriage was a Miss Peterson. To them were born John, Patrick, Neil, Duncan, Archibald, Malcom, Daniel, Margaret, Nancy and possibly others.

John Smith lived, married and died leaving only one daughter who died at an advanced age about 1856.

Malcom married a Miss McNeil and moved to AL or MS, probably about 1800.

Archibald also moved to AL or MS about the same time.

Patrick married a Miss Clark. They had five sons: Daniel, Archibald, John, Malcom and David; and three daughters: Margaret, Annie and Flora--eight children in all. Of Daniel Smith and his descendants you know more that I.

Archibald was a Presbyterian Minister and died in 1854, I think. J P Smith of Rowland, NC, now about 79 years of age is his son; he and his family are the only descendants of the name in NC.

From an inscription in the old Smith Cemetery I find, "In memory of Patrick Smith, born 17 June 1750, died 14 July 1816. He loved his country in times that tried men's souls. He loved his savior and died in hope of glory."

Historian uncovers writings of ancestors

By JUDY JOHNSON Coastlines Editor

A local amateur historian has uncovered some writings of one of his ancestors which detail travels in the South during the 1870s, and has published the writings in booklet form writings in booklet form.

Donald V. Smith of Pascagoula uncovered the writings of his great-great uncle David Hiddle while cataloging some of his grandfather's papers. Smith's grandfather was the late Arthur V. Smith, former editor of The Chronicle Star, a forerunner of The Mississippi Press.

Hiddle and his brothers, William and James Smith, built a thriving business on the shores of Smith Lake in Moss Point. All of Scottish birth, the Smith brothers changed their name in the New World after William stowed away to get here.

The sawmill business hit hard times with the coming of the Civil War, when Yankee troops commandeered the mill's two schooners for war use. In his travels to and along the Gulf Coast, Hiddle examined life in these parts with the eye of a careful observer.

The book Smith put together is titled Travels in America, and its cover features a cameo portrait of one of the author's brothers. The frontispiece has a photo of the William Smith home in Moss Point, taken from Tommy Wixon's collection of historic pictures, Photographs From the Past.

The book, a slim, hand-bound volume, includes passages from letters sent by Hiddle to his relatives in Australia. Hiddle's impressions of Savannah, New Orleans and Dog River are interspersed with poignant musings on his own life and times, and the issues of the day.

"Unfortunately, not all of his writings are complete," Smith writes in his forward, "and some of the pages were torn or destroyed by old age. Yet what remains is a fascinating eyewitness account of life in the coastal South during the Civil War period, and a rare look at the inner feelings of an early immigrant to this still New World."

The book includes a facsimile of Hiddle's original writing, with the text transcribed into easily read type. Smith has presented a copy of the book to the Jackson George Regional Library.

Copies of the book are available at B. Dalton Bookseller's in Singing River Mall of Gautier, and at the Gazebo an Burnham's Drugs of Moss Point. They may also be ordered by mail for $5 each from Donald V. Smith, P.O. Box 955, Pascagoula MS 39567. Each copy is handbound and humbered.

A Pas-Pointer view

'No obeisance paid to money'

By ARTHUR SMITH

In a previous column I told of the arrival in this country of a great uncle of mine who came from Glaskow, Scotland, to join his two brothers on Smith's Lake above Elder Ferry on the Escatawpa River. His name was David Hiddle, but his brothers had adopted the name Smith, their mother's, when they came to this country shortly before the Civil War.

The three built a lumber mill and a grist mill, also a dwelling, barns and service houses on the shore of the lake. The operation was shut down by the Civil War, after the mill owners had suffered losses of their ships and cargoes, and a company of federal troops took possession of the ferry and the roads leading to the community.

DAVID RETURNED to Scotland and soon emigrated to Australia where in later life he wrote an account of his travels and observations in America, including his residence of about three years on the Escatawpa River near Elder Ferry. That historic crossing was begun in 1831 by William G. Elder and was operated by him and his descendants until 1909.

Here are excerpts from my greatuncle's account of his brief life on the Escatawpa River which was then called Dog River:

"In my last paper I left off at that point where I had arrived for a while at my journey's end, Elder Ferry... The country around this part was a mingled scene of wild, uncultivated, marshland and pleasant spots where the hand of man had turned Nature's bounties to account.

"Dog River takes its name from a peculiar wood, which grows luxuriantly and in abundance at the head of the river. It is navigable for about 200 miles by the point where we had our sawmill situated. The traffic consisted mostly between logmen and mill owners, the former bringing down rafts of logs which the mill owners bought."

(He recorded the struggles of getting their mills into operation, so that "soon

what was once a quiet greensward where the alligators and turtles basked in the sun heard the busy, hissing noise of the steam engine, the reverberating sound of the circular saw and the grinding noise of the grist mill."

He described at length the "different worthies that came by the river or roads in canoes and in wagons drawn by bullocks."

Then he said:

"FOR THE MOST part they came by horse and buggy. One and all, they had an easy, independent swagger, and a manly way of 'wish you good morning.' No one, as a general rule, paid obeisance to the man of money or one who might hold a more comfortable position . . This is one of the qualities of Americans I admire . . . You will generally find them well posted on the affairs of the Senate."

He said the post office is the "center of activity and interest. One sits whitling a stick, occasionally joining in the conversation. Another straddles a sack of corn, another threatens to break the homemade chair . . All this is in a store, which stocks everything from a needle to an anchor, and houses the post office."

He notes

"The chief of all is Mr. Elder, the postmaster . . . It is he who is vehemently dialactical about the issues . . . the war, the probable result, generally winding up with the assertion 'we' are bound to beat the Yankees, and soon."

With fervor he wrote:

"America is the land of freedom (notwithstanding her Negro slaves) freed from the antiquated conditions of European states, which weigh like an incubus upon their people's energies; in America there is the enjoyment of an unencumbered energy."

(Other sources show Wm. G. Elder was postmaster at Elder Ferry from 1858 until it was discontinued in 1869. It was reopened in 1910 under the name of Ford. Postmasters in those years were Leroy Perkins, Mary E. Goff and Harriet A. Livaudais.

ANCESTRALLY SPEAKIN: JAMES SMITH of HARDEMAN CO., TENN.

Written and submitted to FAMILY FINDINGS by Mr. Don Brown, 2053 Berdan Ave., Toledo, Ohio 43613.

James SMITH was born in Virginia, probably about 1788. The names of his parents aren't known, and it isn't known when he left Virginia. He was somewhere in Tennessee by the mid-1820's. He and his wife, Elizabeth, possibly went to Tennessee from Kentucky, as it appears that their oldest child might have been born in Kentucky. Elizabeth, whose maiden name is unknown, was born about 1790 in either North Carolina or in Virginia.

James and Elizabeth were the parents of at least six children: Mary Ann, born about 1823, who was married to West W. WIGGINS in July, 1829, and who apparently died in Hardeman County in the 1860's; Nancy L., born about 1824, who was first married to James K. HILL on May 13, 1840, and after his death to John JACKSON on August 11, 1851; James and William, who were twins, born in March 1825; Elizabeth, born about 1829, who was married to James Thomas (Tom) YOUNG on September 10, 1849; and Sarah A., born about 1831, who was married to Thomas G. HILL on February 8, 1848.

James, Jr., was married to Nancy Catherine MARSH, daughter of Mumford S. MARSH and Caroline JONES, on September 9, 1851, and they became the parents of two daughters before James' death: Mary Caroline, born about 1852, who was married to James H. HILL and moved to Arkansas; and Florence Elizabeth, born about 1854, who was married to James M. YOUNG. James SMITH, Jr., died in November or December, 1858, and a third daughter was born after his death: James Ann (Jimmie), born on February 26, 1859, who was married to Benjamin F. MURDAUGH.

William, the other twin, was first married to Elizabeth WEBB on September 24, 1846, and before her death on October 14, 1855, they became the parents of Sarah F., born in 1847, who was married to Starling Frank NUCKOLLS; Tames Madison, born about 1848, who was married to Dolly PIRTLE; and a son probably named Thomas, born about 1849, who died in 1855. William SMITH and ouisa A. MARSH, daughter of Mumford S. MARSH and Caroline JONES, were married in January 31, 1856, and they became the parents of one son: William Tilman, forn in 1863, who was married to Laura BRADFORD. William (Bill) SMITH died in lardeman County on January 15, 1908.

James SMITH, Sr., died in Hardeman County about 1840. His widow as married to Lemuel POYNER on November 15, 1840, and she died sometime uring the 1850's. James SMITH is surely buried in Hardeman County, but no ombstone has been found there for him or for Elizabeth. He left an estate f 221 and three-fourths acres of land, apparently situated north of the atchie River in the vicinity of Shandy.

GILES SMITH AND REBECCA BOUNDS

Giles Smith was born near the town of Union in Union county, South Carolina, on August 19, 1835. "Giles" was a family name among the Smiths, and there were several Giles Smiths in Union in those days. The Smiths were small farmers, tradesmen, and blacksmiths.

For the young men of Giles' generation, there were few opportunities in South Carolina. Land was expensive and increasingly bought up by plantation owners; younger sons without much money had little choice but to work on someone else's land. Thus, it's not surprising that 40% of South Carolina's native-born had moved from the state by 1850-60, chiefly going to Tennessee, Alabama, and Mississippi.² A friend of Giles', Thomas Sanders, was going west with his wife and baby, so Giles went along. They moved due west along the 34th parallel to the frontier of Mississippi. In the 1860 census of Calhoun County, MS, Giles is listed as a farm laborer, age 26, working for Thomas Sanders, also 26, both from South Carolina.

Calhoun County was still frontier land, recently taken from the Indians. The county was formed in 1852 from land in Chickasaw, Lafayette, and Yalobusha counties. Giles and Thomas settled near Pittsboro, the county seat, which was also established in 1852. This was not cotton country nor was the land divided into large plantations. Instead, the area was settled by small farmers with few slaves, and corn was the principal crop.

The Pittsboro courthouse burned along with all its records, so I don't know exactly when Giles married Rebecca Bounds, but their first child, Olivia, was born in 1861, so I assume that they married about 1860. Little Olivia died when she was just two years old, and is buried in a difficult-to-reach old cemetery there.³

The nation's troubles had been brewing for decades, and during the 1850s, the conflicts of two opposing economies and ways of life became irreconcilable. On January 9, 1861, Mississippi seceded from the Union. Young Mississippians rushed to enlist for the war that they expected would last only a few months. Giles, however, had a wife and small child. But on May 29, 1862, Corinth, MS, was abandoned by Confederate troops to the Union forces. Corinth was only about 60 miles from Pittsboro. The Pittsboro area itself was a likely target for Yankee troops because of its proximity to the railroad that ran from Memphis to New Orleans. On July 31, 1862, Giles went to Grenada, 30 miles away, and enlisted as a private in Company F, Ballentine's Regiment of Cavalry, 2nd Partisan Rangers. By this time, the enlistment was "for the term of the war."

IN THE CHANCERY COURT. OF JACKSON COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI

IN THE MATTERS OF THE ESTATE OF DEWEY SMITH, EAMA PARKER, PETITIONER

APR 22 1959

NO. 14,753

N. C. EVERETT, Clerk
By farming line light se.

DECREE APPOINTING ADMINISTRATRIX

This cause coming on for hearing upon the petition of Emma Parker, the mother of the deceased, and it appearing to the court that Dewey Smith died intestate on the 15th day of December, 1958 as a result of a boat capsizing on the high seas. It further appearing to the court that the deceased was an adult resident citizen of Jackson County, Mississippi at the time of his death in which said County and State personal clothing and effects of the deceased are situated. The court further finds that the sole surviving heirs at law of the said Dewey Smith are his mother, Mrs. Emma Parker; his brother, Mrs. Frank Smith; and his sister, Mrs. Gertrude S. Vonosdol; all being adults.

It further appears to the court that it is necessary that an administrator be appointed of the estate of the deceased for the purpose of bringing a suit against the boat "Captain John" and the United States Government, and that the said Emma Parker is ready, able and willing to undertake such trust. It further appears to the court that the said Emma Parker should enter into a cost bond. That in the event any proceeds are derived from said suit or claim, the said Emma Parker will then enter into any other bond as the court may deem necessary.

It is ordered, adjudged and decreed that Mrs. Emma Parker be and is hereby appointed administratrix of the estate of Dewey Smith, deceased, and that upon her taking the oath and entering into a bond as required by law, letters of administration issue to her appointing her as administratrix of the said estate for the purpose of bringing a suit or settling the claims against the United States Government and the boat "Captain John". It is further ordered that the said Emma Parker enter into a bond, and that if any proceeds are derived from said suit, she will then enter into any such bond as the court might order.

ORDERED. ADJUDGED AND DECREED this the 27 day of Angel 1 1959.

In the matter of the pension claim of aforesaid County and State, citizens well known to me to be reputable and entitled to credit, and who, being duly sworn, declare in relation to aforesaid case, as follows: That affiants are respectively 67 and 57 years of age, and have been intimately acquainted with the claimant and her husband, the soldier, for the last years. Affiants further state that the claimant and her said husband lived together as man and wife up to the date of said soldier's death, which took place on the Affiants further declare that they have no interest in said case, and are not concerned in its prosecution.

WAR OF 1812 WIDOW. Claim for Pension. ORIGINAL. 75712 Oathame fmith Widow of Eswis Litisted 18 Discharged 18 FROM GEORGE E. LEMON, ATTORNEY.	As this may reach the hands of some persons unacquainted with this House, we append hereto, as specimens of the testinonials in our possession, copies of letters from several gentlemen of political and military distinction, and widely known throughout the United States: Belvidere, Lleinois, October 24, 1875. I take great pleasure in recommending Captain Graces E. Leron, now of Washington, D. C., to all persons who may have claims to settle or other business to prosecute before the Departments at Washington. I know him to be thoroughly qualified, well acquainted with the laws and with Department rules in all matters growing out of the late War, especially in the Paymaster's and Quartermaster's offices. I have had occasion to employ him for friends of mine, also, in the soliciting of patents, and have found him very scrive, well informed, and successful practitioner, I recommend him strongly to all who may need his services. S. A. HURLBUT, M. C., Fourth Congressional District, Illinois, Late Major General U. S. Vols. House of Refresentatives, Washington, D. C., March 3, 1876. From several years' acquaintance with Captain George E. Lemon, of this city, I cheerfully commend him as a gentleman' of integrity and worth, and well qualified to attend to the collection of Bounty and other Claims against the Government. His experience in that line gives him superior advantages. W. P. SPRAGUE, M. C., Filtenth District of Ohio. JAS. D. STRAWBRIDGE, M. C., Thirteenth District of Penn. Executive Mansion, Boise City. IDAIN TERRITORY, September 5, 1876. Captain George E. Leron, Attorney and Agent for the collection of war claims at Washingeon City, is a thorough, able, and exceedingly well-informed man of business, of high character, and entirely responsible. I can assure all having war claims requiring adjustment that their interests cannot be confided to safer hands. M. BRAYMAM. Governor of Idaha and late, Maj. Gen. Vols. Dear mrs. Strickland,

Thank you so much for all your help and I do feel that the information you gave me concerning alabama and Floreda distrute will prove to be helpful. So far, sl've only been researching miss. but I'm going to start checking in Those other two areas as well. Enclosed you will find a copy of our William South's application for bounty land with his signature. as il mentioned before, we have about five samples of this signature and they all all the same. If you should happen by chance upon this signature of would be very grateful to know about it. I have also been looking for a roster from Wayne Ctz with The names and date of enlistment for the war of 1812. Thought maybe he had a brother that enlisted with Chia. Could you please send me the enformation I would need to send for a copy of case you were telling me that event the court of errors and appeals? I believe you said there was a William Smith mentioned as the Surband of a Newell daughter. Even though it said they were in Copied Cty, ild still like to check it out. Enclosed is a check for $25.00. I would like to chave a copy of both volumes of the Wagne Cty tax lists. Please use the rest for sortage or for copies of anything you may hum accross. also, I would like to ask what the number of Pous indicate on the 1810 tax list. I assumed it meant white males over 21 years old. el was hoping it meant that a William Smith shows up There with o poll and our William would have been 19 years old in 1810. Itank you again for your help and if you will send me some information on people your looking for a Tefas Ill be more than happy to look for them. Xa/erne Stiphs 1208 Kent 11.

Dear Mr. Smith:

Thank you for your book order. There are a number of Smith's in it and I am trying to straighten some of them out and put them in families.

About your Hugh Smith. By records show Hugh Smith served in the Mar of 1812 in ht. Col. Mixon's 13th Regiment of Lississippi Militia. I am enclosing a form for ordering his service record, any bounty hand and pension application. I musually ask for the entire file for sometimes it contains affidavits for his marriage and etc and it will give a clue to where he came from in 3.6.

Mr. .. Tuss dilliams, Jr., Associate Professor of History, Northeast Louisians University, Norroe, IA. published A books on the records of Marion County, No. They are out of print by now, but you may be able to read them at some library. I have all four books, but there is not much on Mach Smith.

1816 Territorial Consus of marion sount, chows hugh Umith: Hugh mit Males: 1 over 21, 2 under 21

I are not rine miss in the 1020 census, but he is listed in the 1030 Census of Hings County, His havin smith: - Makes: 1 under 10, 1(10-20), 120-40), 1(40-60)

Francies: 3 under 10, 1(10-20), 1(40-60)

He does, however, show up in the 1825 tax list of Marion County, Ma.

The logo Cortality schedule for Marion County shows:

hugh Smith, 75, a widower, white, born in 5.0. died April logo. Counc of death unknown.

If he had a will, it should be on file in the courthouse at Columbia. If he did not have a mill, but owned property his estate still had to be probated and records should be in the probate minutes in the Chancery Clerk's Office.

Did he have a brother Raniel? I am very interested in Baniel Emith 77 in 1550 Jones County, La census. He was born in 2.0. and in 1550 is living with his son-in-law? Cillian Accilvery. I believe that Cillian Allen with of Jones County and later Cerry County was a son of Baniel Smith and I am trying to prove this theory.

If you would know enything about Daniel being a brother of Hugh, I would appreciate knowing about it. You may already have all the information that I have sent, but thought I would send it in case you did not have it.

Sincerely,

Mr. Ben F. Strickland Star Rte., Box 568 Monahans, Texas 79756

Deas Mr. Strickland:

When your letter of came, I was out of town, and then I decided to wait until I could do a little research before replying. I hope you will excuse the delay.

I found no references to Lee C. Smith. However, in White's "1840 Census of the Republic of Texas, I found: Smith, L. C., 1 poll returned, no property listed, in Washington County. He was not there in 1850.

Mullins "Republic of Texas Poll Lists for 1846 lists the following policible candidates:

Smith, L. Upshur
Smith, Leander Henderson
Smith, Lemuel Houston
Smith, Lemuel Montgomery.

There was no reference to him in Ray's "Austin Colony Pioneers". Nor in "Early Settlers & Indian Fighters," by A. J. Sowell

Nor in "Rangers & Pioneers of Texas" by Sowell

Not in 1850 census of Washington, Grimes counties. (I have printed records of these. Nor did I find him when I read Upshur, Shelby or Henderson Counties some years ago. I copied all the Smaths I could find.

Not In Houston (printed record) County in 1850

There is an L. Smith, 49, farmer from Georgia, wife Cliff(?) with children William, James Eban, July Ann, Graser, and Elizabeth in Angelina Co. in 1850. He was evidently in Texas since about 1835.

He in not mention in the TCU Press "Papers of the Robertson Colony, Vol 1 or Vol 2 (all published), nor in Tylers "History of Bell County"

That's about all I can tell you at this time. I will keep your letter on file, and if I run across something will let you know.

Luc

Sincerely.

Justice Court judge seeks mayor's post

OCEAN SPRINGS — Justice Court Judge Nick Patano has qualified to run for mayor in the May 10 Democratic primary here.

Patano, 27, is a native and life-long resident of Ocean Springs. A former member of the U.S. Marine Corps, he has served as chief of the auxiliary police and as juvenile officer for the Ocean Springs police department. He is a member of the Ocean Springs Chamber of Commerce.

Patano said his campaign will be centered around the needs and desirres of every segment of the population. He contends that the young people of this community have lost rapport with city officials and that very little mutual respect exists between city hall and the under-thirty population.

"The restrictive ordinances that choke our resident merchants and discourage new businesses should be reviewed carefully," he said. "As mayor I would be responsive to the real needs of the electorate as a whole and I would place the community's best interest before that of any special group or individual."

Patano said he favored renovation and alteration of the old gymnasium on Government Street for use as a community recreation center. "It wouldn't be as expensive as a new center," he said, "and could possibly be built with revenue sharing funds eliminating the need for a tax increase."

Finch to address AFT convention

BILOXI — Gov. Cliff Finch will address delegates and guests at the third annual convention of the Mississippi American Federation of Teachers at 10 a.m. Monday at the Blloxi Sheraton.

Bettye Neison, president of MAFT,

Mayor Walter Washington, District of Columbia Police Chief Maurice Cullinane and other officials all hailed the three Middle East ambassadors for playing the key role in ending the siege and winning the release of the hostages.

Zahedi, a very eligible bachelor, the darling of Washington's gossip columnists and a prolific party-giver, was attending a meeting in Europe when the Hanafi Muslim terrorists stormed the B'nai B'rith headquarters, Washington's City Hall and Moslem center on Embassy Row last Wednesday.

He immediately boarded a plane for the United States, arriving here at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday — nearly eight hours after the siege began.

Within a half hour, he said, he was involved in the telephone negotiations with Khaalis, the terrorist leader who was holed up on the eight floor of the B'nai B'rith headquarters with more than 100 hostages.

Zahedi sald that he and ambassadors Ghorbal and Yaqub-khan were intelephone contact with Khaalis from that point on at intervals ranging from half an hour to two hours.

A face-to-face meeting was first proposed to Khaalis between 2 a.m. and 3 a.m. Thursday by the ambassadors, Zahedi said.

Khaalis told them there were "disadvantage" and that they were "going too fast."

At 6:30 a.m. Thursday, Zahedi said, the ambassadors "suggested tentatively, gingerly" to American officials that a personal face-to-face meeting beset up with Khaalis. The answer was

"Our American friends thought it would be very risky for us," the ambassador said. He said authorities were concerned about the personal safety of the ambassadors and the possibility of them being taken hostage.

The proposal was laid before Khaalis again on Thursday afternoon.

Smiths celebrate 60th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Pascagoula celebrated their 60th anniversary on April 11, 2003, at Scrantons Restaurant in Pascagoula. The couple was originally married April 8, 1943 at First Methodist Church Parsonage in Pascagoula. The reception was hosted by their children, Jimmie Smith, Danny Smith and Elaine Norris.

The couple met in Pascagoula in July of 1942. Mr. Smith worked in a shipyard and was moved to Tampa Bay, Fla. During some time off, he came back to Pascagoula and they were married. Mrs. Smith is the former Mary Nell Callahan.

The couple has three grandchildren, eight greatgrandchildren and one greatgreat-grandchild.

25th anniversary

HURLEY — Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Smith celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on Sept. 23, 1990, with a reception and renewal of vows at Hurley United Methodist Church.

Hosting the fete were the children of the honored couple, Wayne and Jeri (Smith) Baker, Archy and Deborah Smith and Nicki Smith, all of Hurley.

The couple was married on Sept. 20, 1965, in the Movella home of Ida Eyrle Tanner, when Mr. Smith took as his bride the former Virginia Irean Glaskox. The Rev. Forrest Coleman officiated at the renewal of yows.

Mrs. Smith chose a dress in a combination of light and dark greys, and carried a bouquet of white magnolias, roses and white laces, tied with pink ribbon. Mr. Smith wore a black suit.

Red and white were the colors used to decorate the fellowship hall, as were arrangements of red roses.

Focal point of the table was a white anniversary cake topped with confections of red roses, made by the aunt of Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Olga Rubino, who had also created the original wedding cake. Serving the cake to the guests were Sue Ann Miles, Linda

District 1's got a new sweetheart

By JUDY JOHNSON

Coastlines Editor

She's a cutie, a beauty, and the apple of grandpa's eye, and she's the newest sweetheart in Jackson County's District One.

She is Julia Raquel Smith, born on Mother's Day, Sunday, May 13, 1990, at 7:27 a.m. to Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Thomas Smith of the East Central Community.

Julia weighed six pounds, 11½ ounces, and measured 20 inches in length upon her arrival at Providence Hospital in Mobile, Ala. Her mom is the former Victoria Gina Huerta.

She is the first child and daughter to her very proud parents. And her equally proud grandparents (do I hear vest buttons popping?) are District One Supervisor and Mrs. Tommy (Jean) Smith of Wade, and Mr. and Mrs. Teodoro (Delores) Huerta of Lucedale.

Great-grandparents are Mrs. Mack Cumbest of Wade and the late Mr. Cumbest; Valla Ree Smith of State Line and the late Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Smith; the late Sr. and Sra. Florentino Huerta of San Luis Potosi, Mexico, and the late Sr. and Sra. Manuel Garza of Reynosa, Mexico

The essay theme of "Ambition" couldn't have been more appropriate for a man whose healthy dose of this very word is what drove him to obtain his High School Equivanlency

Diploma (GED) at the age of 74.

Edwin Lake Smith of the Strengthford community was able to write from the heart on what ambition meant to him on the essay portion of the GED test. "The thing that I have wished and longed for and even dreamed about is a high school diploma ... and now that I have passed my seventy-fourth birthday, I still have a strong ambition to get my GED and after this I will strive to learn more," Smith penned.

Having been raised during the depression, Smith said he did not have the opportunity to go on to school. He then served his country as an infantryman; making four major inva-sions in the South Pacific. After coming home, Smith and his wife, the former Jewel Buxton, were busy raising four children.

"We sent four children on to college and they got degrees," Smith said, adding that he was still his dream to get a high school diploma.

Smith said when he first started the GED classes, "I thought I'd bit off more than I wanted before I got through, but I always had the desire for education and I admired those that had it and I realized what it meant." Smith began the classes in November 1992 and successfully passed all five parts of the test this spring.

A sense of satisfaction and accomplishment were the feelings Smith described himself as having when he finally received his

GED.

He noted that the test was difficult, but that if one has a strong desire for achieving this goal, it can be done.

"If a person wants it, then go after it, but it's not easy - especially after beeing out of school over 55 years," said Smith. He added that he was definitely the oldest in his class, with most of the students being in their 20s and 30s.

Smith said he would strongly encourage young people who have dropped out of school to obtain their GED. "High school today is not very much to have. Businesses are looking for more than that out of a person. Every young person should have an education," Smith said.

"I missed many opportunities by not having a high school education — I was ignored when it came to that (during job interviews).... They would put it down when they saw 8th in grade or throw it aside," said Smith.
